Westman Returns to the Warriors

The Stratford Hockey Club is pleased to announce that former Director of Hockey Operations and Head Coach, Phil Westman, will be returning to the team for the 2018-2019 season as Director of Hockey Operations. Club President Nick Aroutzidis, stated "Phil was a key player in our past success as an organization and we look forward to him managing the hockey operations for the team. He brings great hockey knowledge and commitment to our team and our fans".

Westman confirmed that the entire coaching, medical, training and equipment staff will be returning for the upcoming season. He is currently interviewing for the other managerial positions and recruiting scouting staff.

Jason Lott has stepped down as Alternate Governor of the Hockey Club and will stay on in a volunteer capacity. Paul Jennings and Dustin Wenger are among the candidates for other roles.
